What types of cookies do we use?

Necessary cookies

Necessary cookies allow us to offer you the best possible experience when accessing and navigating through our website and using its features. For example, these cookies let us recognize that you have created an account and have logged into that account.

In our case, we can use cookies to know if your IP address has already created an account with us.

Functionality cookies let us operate the site in accordance with the choices you make. For example, we will recognize your username and remember how you customized the site during future visits.

In our case, we use cookies to recognize you were logged in before in case you have clicked on "keep me logged in".

Analytical cookies

These cookies enable us and third-party services to collect aggregated data for statistical purposes on how our visitors use the website. These cookies are used to help us improve your user experience of the website.

In our case, if you have accepted the cookie pop up, we will use Google Analytics so we can understand how you use our website (which pages have you visited, your interests, gender, how many minutes you stayed with us, what was the last page you visited before reaching to cvriser.com, etc.). This cookie is kept in your browser for 365 and then it will be automatically deleted (in case you did not deleted it yet). Therefore, we will ask you again in 365 days if you accept our Google Analytics cookies.

We can, occasionally, use cookies related with digital advertising (ex: LinkedIn and Google ads), so we can understand if the URL that we advertised clicked by you had the effect we wanted (ex: account creation at cvriser.com).
